

O'CONNOR GIVES ENGLAND WARNING

He Says Sherman's Letter Is a Useful Reminder of Peril.

IRELAND THE REMEDY.

Until That Question Is Settled There Will Be Constant Bickerings with America.

EPISCOPALIAN CHURCH'S WORK.

The Financiers of That Faith in the United States Are Against Any Misunderstanding with Great Britain.

By Frank Marshall White.
London, July 18.—T. P. O'Connor, M. P., in to-day's Weekly Sun says:

"Mr. Sherman, the American Secretary of State, is a useful reminder to the rulers of the country that the world is not all peace and friendship to England. It must appear to every humane man something of a pity that these constant bickerings should take place between two nations so bound up by common interests and great common heritages as America and England.

"But I have never doubted that these bickerings will constantly recur until the Irish question is settled, and thus the chief and constant cause of friction between England and a very large and influential portion of the population of America is removed. At the same time it would be a misrepresentation of the whole truth to lead anybody to suppose that it is among the Irish in America alone that anti-English feeling prevails.

The Episcopalian Influence.
"There are, doubtless, sections of opinion in America which are distinctly pro-English. The section of which this can be said with the most certainty is the Episcopalian body.

"Episcopalians of the United States have strong association with the Anglican Church, and in religion blood is thicker than water. Moreover, this body, though not numerically very large, is very influential. Some of the greatest financiers of America are Episcopalians, and financiers all over the world have a good deal to say on the great issues of peace or war.

Truth Must Be Faced.
"This section of opinion is dead against any misunderstanding, much less conflict, with England, but, after all, the truth must be faced. There is in the United States a very powerful, very constant, and, at times, very rapid current of hostility to this country, and statesmen will be foolish who do not recognize this fact, and, recognizing it, take steps to bring it to an end.

"Every rational and humane man must be anxious that this country should be at peace with all the world, and that every step should be taken which should put an end to the enmities by which it is surrounded. Everybody knows what I consider the first step toward that desirable consummation, and until that step is taken and the islands at home are really and cordially united, I feel sure that the arm and voice of England will be not so powerful and united as they should be.

Language Too Plain.
"How Englishmen, calling themselves practical, loyal, and, above all things, imperialists, cannot see this, is more than I can make out. Meantime, it is somewhat to be regretted that diplomatic correspondence between two governments cannot be carried on in language a little more restrained. The American statesman is a little too downright for the language which men are accustomed to use when they are dealing with such dreadfully inflammable forces as national passions.

"I see that some of the Americans frankly criticize the tone of Mr. Sherman's dispatch, and, in the face of that criticism, it is not necessary for British journalists to say much more. Let us hope that the wisdom and good sense of the Government of Lord Salisbury will see this country through this imbroglio. Seals are valuable things in their way, but the real interest of the two countries is a peaceful and cordial understanding, and that is worth a good many seals."

JACKET MAKERS LOCKED OUT.

Several Contractors Join in the Move and Another Strike Is Expected.

The lockout of the children's jacket makers by the contractors was started yesterday by four firms locking out their men. These contractors are Barnett Wilson, No. 21 Bowers; Samuel Levine, No. 53 Pike street; Samuel Cohen, No. 518 Water street, and Davis Lantz, No. 275 Delancey street. More firms are expected to join in the lockout movement to-day. It is believed that it may precipitate another strike. A mass meeting of the United Brotherhood of Clothingmakers will be held in New Irving Hall to-morrow evening, at which Joseph Randolph will speak. A meeting of the Pressers' Branch will be held at No. 80 Clinton street on Friday night, at which it is believed the question of a strike will be discussed.

Label League to Have a Newspaper.
Delegate Harris, of Claimants' Union No. 144, who is a member of the Union Label League of the Greater New York, announced at the meeting of the Central Labor Union, yesterday, that the league was about to publish a newspaper. This, he said, was absolutely necessary in order to bring the Greater New York in closer touch with the movement for union labels. The newspaper will be called the "Industrial News." The first issue will be published in a few days.

POWDERLY SCORED BY LABOR MEN.

Central Labor Union Furi-ously Denounces His Appointment.

"AN OFFICIAL INSULT."

Uproar Reigns When a Delegate Comes to the Defence of the Ex-Leader.

VERBAL SPARRING MATCHES.

Denunciatory Resolutions Were Finally Adopted, Amid the Cheers of the Scores of Labor Delegates.

The appointment of T. V. Powderly as United States Commissioner of Immigration has stirred up organized labor here as it has not been stirred up for years. The Knights of Labor and the Federationists alike are indignant at President McKinley for appointing an ex-leader of the Knights of Labor over the protests of the trades unionists which have been sent to him repeatedly since the appointment was first talked of.

The Central Labor Union, representing the conservative element of labor in this city, spent a good part of its session yesterday in denouncing Powderly and criticizing the appointment. That Powderly had some friends in the central body was evident during the discussion, but the meeting as a whole was overwhelmingly against him. The discussion was started by Samuel Prince, delegate of Clear Packers' Union No. 251, firing off the following resolution:

Resolved, That the appointment of T. V. Powderly as Commissioner of Immigration is the greatest official insult ever offered by the Federal Government to organized labor. The delegate prefaced the resolution with some remarks in which he referred to Powderly as a traitor to the cause of organized labor. Applause and a few hisses followed. A motion to table the resolution was lost and then there was a struggle for the floor.

Delegate Farrell, of the Concord Labor Club, was the first to catch the chairman's eye.

Three Ways of Looking at It.
"There are only three ways of looking at this appointment," he said. "The first is to approve and applaud it; the second is to pass it by in silence and the third is to pass a strong resolution condemning it. I myself have tried to elevate Mr. Powderly and held with many others to raise him to the high position he once occupied in the Knights of Labor. I will remember a remark that was a favorite one of his when talking of organized labor. It was, 'See that a true Knight is on guard.' Mr. Powderly in deserting his principles and coquetting with trusts and monopolies shows that he was not a true Knight. I hope the resolution will pass by acclamation."

"The appointment of Mr. Powderly by President McKinley," said Delegate McGill, of the Plasterers' Union, "was only a reward for his services. Powderly turned after honoring free labor, and spoke in favor of the gold platform. He is no trimmer, and now that he has been rewarded will not go back on President McKinley. None of the labor leaders are in the business for their health. I say this, and yet I tell all I could to elect Mr. Bryan."

"Powderly once stood on the platform at a big labor meeting," shouted Delegate Prince, "with a silver dollar in his hand and declared that free silver was the hope of the workmen. Yet at the back of the gold men."

"I protest against this," interrupted Delegate Johnstone, of the United Carpenters and Joiners of New York. "This is not a political meeting, and the discussion is out of order."

The chairman, Henry Meisel, delegate of the bartenders, said the discussion was in order, as it was not party politics they were discussing. An appeal was then taken from the decision of the chair and the chair was sustained.

Protest Comes Too Late.
"This is a case of locking the door after the steed is stolen," said Delegate Parley, of the Hoxton Labor Club, a Knight of Labor organization. "Powderly is appointed and that ends the matter."

"If Sovereign had been appointed," said Delegate Johnstone, "this kick would not have taken place. Some of you are evidently sore at Powderly, but he may be at the head of the Knights of Labor again."

The best advertising investment you can find. A million eyes will see your "want" in to-morrow's Journal.

A wild yell followed and uproar reigned. Everybody tried to speak. The chairman beat a long roll with his gavel, and finally order was restored.

A second attempt was made to table the resolution, on the ground that it was too late as long as Powderly had been appointed, but the resolution went through.

Delegates of all the trades unions were individually anxious yesterday to put themselves on record as condemning the appointment of Powderly. Following are the opinions of some of the leaders:

Henry Meisel, delegate of the Bartenders' Union—It is an insult to all the organized workmen of the country to appoint Mr. Powderly over the protests of both Knights and Federationists. Powderly is a Judas to the labor movement.

Eugene V. Johnson, delegate of the Manhattan Musical Union—The appointment of Powderly over labor's protest shows how necessary it is for labor to be better organized. The protest should have been stronger.

George Washington Jones, delegate of the United Clothing Cutters—I have expected nothing else from the Republican party. I knew they would discard our protests, because the Republican party has always been against the interests of the working people.

J. Ryan, delegate of the Photo-Engravers' Union—The appointment is one of the worst that could have been made, as far as the interests of organized labor are concerned. There is no man in the country more unpopular with the working people than Powderly.

John N. Boscort, organizer of the State Branch of the American Federation of Labor—Powderly was entitled to a reward for services, but should have been sent to the Sandwich Islands or some other remote point, so as to avoid this insult to labor.
